✓ 27. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who cited the recent Agency response to the Committee regarding books we had reviewed prior to publication. Shaw asked if we could give him a list of those books going back to 1968 on which the Agency took some action. Shaw also asked if officials of other agencies ever sign CIA secrecy agreements.

28. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Stan Taylor, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and informed him that I had checked and was certain that the Agency was in no way involved in following David Fitzgerald, Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utah), during his recent trip to Rhodesia. Taylor gave me the names of two men and asked me to see if they were Agency employees, as a final check.

30. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff member Mike Galacek and informed him I would set up a CIA orientation briefing for him for 26 or 28 July. I also reviewed a letter Galacek proposed to send us on behalf of Senator Joseph Biden (D., Del.) regarding a constituent's question about CIA involvement in an air crash.

31. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Abram Shulsky, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who said Senator Daniel Moynihan (D., N.Y.) wanted a personal briefing to follow-up questions about the [REDACTED] case which arose at the recent "spy war" briefing of the Committee. Shulsky asked me to arrange this directly with Florence Roth, on the Senator's personal staff.

✓ 32. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Susan Mahler, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who said she had gathered 12 unclassified reports on Soviet defense spending and, therefore, would need 31 more to provide to Senators. The original 43 reports were distributed by mistake to the Committee staff.
